The War

Against Impure Butter

And against "substitutes" sold for butter is being waged with renewed vigor. My "MAYFIELD'S CRAMMEL" BUTTER goes into many "best homes" than any other. ALL concede that it is richer for purity, sweeter, richer, firmer, and deliciousness of flavor.

Try a sample today. You will not be without only 35c. (b. irregular 40c. butter).

Chapped Hands & Face

Are more numerous in March than in any other month—on account of the cutting wind. "LIMON BALM," my own preparation, makes the roughest and reddest cheeks soft, smooth, and velvety and beautiful in a few applications.

Try it. It's a little. Gentlemen should use it after shaving.

The Finishing Touches

AT—

PERRY'S.

If you have decided upon everything but the trimming, congratulate yourself. Now comes the easy part.

Shut your eyes and reach into the immense assortment, and whatever your hand falls on will be handsome—fashionable—and a novelty. You cannot touch disappointment in this entire assortment. It is a congress of kindred creations—gathered from the "ends of the earth"—wherever fashion has set up a workshop. Alike in the loyalty to art—different in conception.

But you don't want to go blindly about anything. You need your eyes to see quality—and to help you to understand prices. We are cheapest when you take value into consideration.

Our exclusiveness, perhaps, gives some of you the wrong impression. It will pay to learn of your error—for their quotations have some meaning—carry some weight. You won't be lured off by inconsiderately low figures. You will pay enough—just enough to be assured of satisfaction. We can guarantee.
